HAZERANLAR MANSION

200 YEARS OLD AMASYA HOUSE

This building was commissioned by Hasan Talat Efendi, the treasurer of the province Ziya Pasha, the governor of Amasya, in 1865 on the fortification walls of the Hatuniye quarter of Amasya. The mansion was named "HAZERANS" after Lady Hazeran, who lived here for many years. The mansion, built on the fortification walls of the ancient period with mud brick infill between two floors with wooden roofs over the basement, was divided into two sections as Haremlik and Selamlık (sections for women and men, respectively). The building is one of the outstanding examples of traditional Ottoman residential architecture and has a closed plan type with a central hall, four iwans and an inner courtyard. Hazeranlar Mansion, which is located on the coast of the Yeşilirmak River and occupies an important place among the model buildings of 19th century civil architecture, was expropriated by our ministry in 1976. Restoration works began in 1979 and were completed in 1983. In 1984 the Mansion was opened as "Museum House" where ethnographic works are exhibited.

Selamlık and Selamlık Main Room

Selamlık Room: This is where people who visited the household of the mansion were hosted and special guests waited here before being received in the main room.

Selamlık Main Room: This room is located in the northwest and overlooks the Yeşilirmak River and the Hatuniye Mosque and can easily see the opposite side of the city. It was a special room of the mansion where important conversations took place and where the owner of the House received the most important guests. Dowry Room: After the main room, this is one of the most elaborate and important rooms of the mansion. Again, carefully selected items are displayed and presented with care.

The mansion exhibits functional items used in daily life that reflect the history of that period.
